

SunTech CT40 Ambulatory Monitor

SKU: MP22031

Categories: Patient Monitors

Description

Utilizing SunTech's market-leading, clinical-grade Advantage(TM) BP technology, the SunTech CT40 is the only modular vital signs device of its kind. Designed to be easily incorporated into any clinical workflow, the modular design of this device allows you to add or change pulse oximetry and themometry modules while in the field, based on the needs of your patients. The new SunTech CT40 is the ideal, affordable solution for clinical-grade spot-checks measurements of blood pressure plus vital signs in hospitals and clinics. Reliability Manual SphygMode™ for real-time verification of BP readings without removing the cuff Accuracy Customizable BP averaging protocol to ensure accurate, consistent readings Connectivity Transfer of data using IHE protocols with network connection through built-in ethernet or optional WiFi Flexibility Modular design for addition of optional temperature and SpO2 modules SimpliCITY Intuitive user interface with LCD display SunTech CT40 is the ideal, affordable solution for clinical-grade spot-check measurements of blood pressure plus vital signs in hospitals and clinics. Ambulatory care, long-term care and low-acuity hospital departments can easily implement this versatile, user-friendly vital signs device that delivers SunTech clinical-grade performance, advanced features and digital connectivity. (Source Suntech)