

Pressure Monitoring Line Hi-Line

Size:150cm

SKU: MP46603

Categories: Surgicals

Short Description:

- The Romsons Hi Line Pressure Monitoring Lines is made up of Polyethylene, DEHP Free material
- These are non-reactive and compatible to all commonly infused fluids

Description

- The Romsons Hi Line Pressure Monitoring Lines is made up of Polyethylene, DEHP Free material
- These are non-reactive and compatible to all commonly infused fluids
- The small bore high pressure extension lines are suitable for high pressure applications, for example as connection between syringe infusion pump and the patient
- The device is provided with male & female luer lock at either ends, which facilitate secure fitment to all standard equipment
- The device is sterile, individually packed in a peel open soft blister pack
- These are available in the lengths of 100 cm, 150 cm and 200 cm
- They come in a standard packing of 20 units per box